The purposes of this program are:

1) To give teachers an opportunity to become familiar with children with a variety of socio-economic backgrounds.

2) To become aware of the similarity of teaching problems, regardless of school area.

3) To become aware of special teaching and curriculum problems posed by children from both high and low socio-economic backgrounds.

4) To provide common experiences as background for the Fall professional meetings.

Procedures:

[redacted]

2) The length of time to be spent in each classroom will be determined by the teachers and principals involved.

3) If a teacher wishes to terminate the visitation prior to the scheduled time, this should be discussed with the principal of the building visited.

4) There will be no written evaluations during this period.

5) In the event that a school does not have a sufficient number of teachers who wish to accommodate the companion schools, please call Mr. Martin.
